Both parties agree to the following:

COMMITMENT

Coaching is an ongoing relationship between coach and client. The opportunities toward success for the coaching client dramatically increases because changing habits and creating possibilities is a process which takes time and practice.

Coaching is a structure that facilitates the process of persona, professional and / or spiritual development. The Client and Coach agree that the coaching relationship will be designed together.

Coaching is for individuals who are emotionally and psychologically healthy and who want to make changes to move forward in their lives.

By entering this relationship, the Coach and Client acknowledge that the Client wants to make significant progress and change in his/her life. Because progress and change happen at rates that are unique to each individual, the Coach and Client commit to working with each other for an initial six-month period. This allows the coaching relationship necessary time to develop and progress through objectives, obstacles and successes that occur.

COACHING SESSION PROCEDURES

All coaching sessions are conducted by telephone unless otherwise arranged with the coach.

At the scheduled appointment time, the Client agrees to dial in at the number provided. The Coach and Client both agree to commit from start to finish each session on time. If the client is more than 10 minutes late for a session, the Coach will assume the session is cancelled for that Client and they will forfeit the session.

Rescheduling a coaching session is easily done with appropriate notice. Please allow for at least 24 hours notice to appointment changes.

In between coaching sessions, the client may feel free to email the Coach. Calls made between the scheduled calls are permissible and based on availability; the parties agree to keep the calls to 5 minutes or less.
